

Rolling Stones Are Rolling Into Town

Written by Harrison Meloche September 18th 2020

The famous British rock band the Rolling Stones are coming to perform in downtown Plymouth. The legendary band has been touring for over 50 years. Each member is 70 years or older, the group was formed way back in 1962.

We went around the downtown Plymouth area to see what people thought of the big news. Bob Jones says "I love the Rolling Stones, I can't believe they're coming here." Another person, Jessica Adams had this to say: "Who are the Rolling Stones? I thought that was a magazine?"

The band says they're excited to play in such a small venue, Mick Jagger said "It's been so long since we've played in such a small town." He went on to say that they plan on playing fan favorite songs like: Beast Of Burden, Paint It Black, and Sympathy For The Devil. I'm a big fan so I can't wait. The concert is set for October 10th and tickets can be bought at the Penn Theater. We hope to see you there.
